THE CARTER'S WORDS

The remove of the Court from Windsor is still constantly put off The carter that three times came to Windsor with his cart to carry away some of the stuff of the Queen's wardrobe, when he repaired there for the third time and was told by those of the wardrobe that the remove held not, clapping his hand on his thigh cried out, * Now I see that the Queen is a woman as well as my wife ' These words being overheard by her Majesty, who then stood at the window, she said, * What a villain is this ! ' and so sends him three angels to stop his mouth

6th February A PLOT TO BURN THE TOWER

John Daniel, an Irishman, hath given Mr Justice Young to understand of a plot that is pretended for the firing of the Tower He declareth that there is a vault where brimstone lies and over it gunpowder, and near to it a trapdoor that stands much open It is purposed that two men like labourers shall come in as though they were workmen in the Tower, and cast certain bales into the vault where the brimstone is so that m a short time it shall tale fire and consume all Further, that there is a device to set the ships at Billingsgate on fire, and the houses also , and then to set the inns and woodstacks on fire in London

THE ROSE THEATRE CLOSED

At the Rose this week the Earl of Sussex's men play The Jew of Malta, and Titus Andronicus, and now cease playing

[c] TITUS ANDRONICUS * ENTERED.

The most lamentable Roman Tiagedy oj Titus +lndromcus, sometime played by the servants of the Earl of Derby, the Earl of Pembroke and the Earl of Sussex, is to be printed

A CONVERSATION BETWEEN SIR ROBERT CECIL AND THE EARL OF ESSEX

At seven in the morning Dr Lopez was agun examined before the Earl of Essex and Sir Robert Cecil, and confesseth more than enough

The office of Attorney-General is still vacant, and canvassed by the Earl of Essex for Mr. Francis Bacon, though the Lord Treasurer and Sir Robert Cecil favour Sir Edward Coke As the Earl of Essex and Sir Robert returned back in a coach